What is EdIndex?

EdIndex is a simple way to apply for properties for rent from the Council and Housing Associations/Co-operatives in Edinburgh.

EdIndex is a partnership between the Council and most of the Housing Associations/Co-operatives in the city. This allows you to apply for housing with them by filling in a single application form.

There are currently 18 partner landlords and they are listed at the back of this form. The landlords have 2 different ways of letting their available homes. They do this through Choice Based Lettings or a Group plus Points System.

You must register with EdIndex before you can bid for general or sheltered housing or be offered a property by any of the partner landlords.

Choice Based Letting

Before you can bid for homes you must create a login for Housing Online. To do this visit www.edindexhousing.co.uk, click on the "Key to Choice" link and follow the instructions. You will need your EdIndex reference number and email address to create your login. Available homes are advertised weekly on a Sunday at 4am. You can view the available homes using the same "Key to Choice" link. You do not need to have a login to view available homes.

Bids must be placed by 3.30am on a Sunday. For more information on Housing Online and how to bid for homes check out the 'Frequently Asked Questions' on www.edindexhousing.co.uk.

Group plus Points System

The following Housing Associations and Co-operative operate a Group plus Points System:

Hanover (Scotland)	Muirhouse	Trust

This means that your application and housing needs are assessed using a different set of rules. When a property becomes available for rent, the individual landlords will contact you directly if you are at the top of their short list. Offers of housing will depend on where you are placed on the short list, your needs, the type of property and area you have selected, and the availability of empty properties for rent

About the Application Form

If you need help to complete this form, please contact one of the landlords listed at the back of this application form. Please mark all boxes with a tick (✓). You must use a pen, write in capital letters and complete the form in full.

You can apply to EdIndex for housing if you are 16 years or older. Please note, if you have come to Edinburgh from abroad it is possible that you might not be able to get Council housing. Please email edindex@edinburgh.gov.uk if you would like more information.

Information from your application form will be placed on a register of applicants. All the partner landlords will have access to this. If you are eligible for housing with the partner landlords, your application will be assessed according to each landlord's allocation rules.

Confidentiality

The information you provide to EdIndex will be used to:

- Decide if you are eligible for housing with the partner landlords
- Assess your housing needs and current housing circumstances
- Enable the partner landlords to match your needs and preferences with available empty homes
- Enable partner landlords to decide if a particular empty home will be offered to you
- Enable monitoring and provide statistical information as required
- Refer you for any housing or services that might meet your needs – we may contact you to discuss this.
- Investigate and consider appropriate action with regard to antisocial behaviour; this information may be shared with the City of Edinburgh Council's Community Safety Teams.
- Consider qualifying occupiers, succession rights and investigation of tenancy matters

The City of Edinburgh Council manages EdIndex on behalf of all the partner landlords. To provide services to you we need to collect your personal data. The City of Edinburgh Council's Privacy Notice explains how we do this and why. The Privacy Notice is available on the Council's website at www.edinburgh.gov.uk or if you would like a hard copy, please contact the team by sending an email to edindex@edinburgh.gov.uk. We have a duty to comply with the Housing (Scotland) Act and other similar legislation, which places obligations on the Council to process your data. This means that we may share information provided to us through EdIndex with other organisations and authorities. In line with the General Data Protection Regulation 2018, we will only share your information when it is legal and reasonable to do so.
